

The Freedom Series: Journeying with Holy Desire

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is it?

- The Freedom Series is a series of monthly video calls for priests as they pursue deeper healing and fellowship.

2. How do I sign up?

- To sign up, follow these steps:
 - Visit this link <https://virtual.jpjhealingcenter.org/course/freedom-series>
 - Click the button that says “Create Account- Complimentary Access”
 - Enter your email and password to create an account
 - That’s it, you’re all signed up! You’ll receive an email with instructions for logging in and accessing the content.

3. It’s time for the call – where do I go?

- When it is time for the monthly session, log in to your account on our online platform (<https://virtual.jpjhealingcenter.org/>).

- After logging in, you will see the list of offerings you are enrolled in, click on “The Freedom Series”.

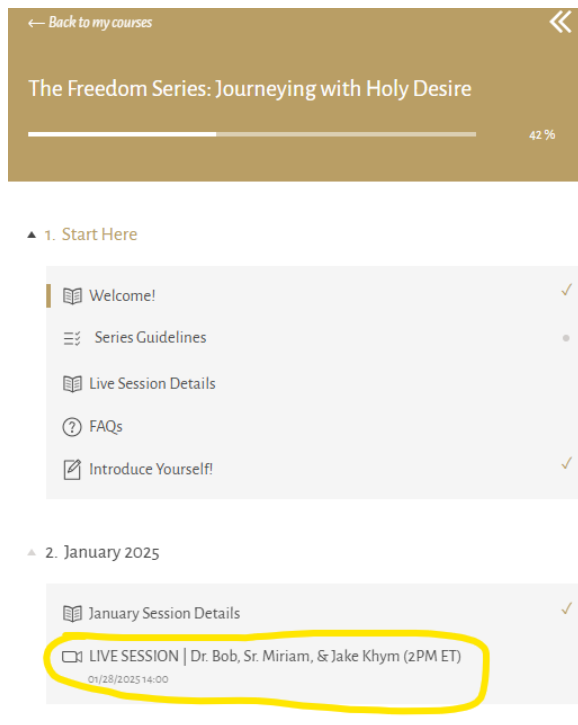

WELCOME BACK!

My Courses

Click on a course card below to access your content:

- Using the menu on the left-side of the screen, navigate to the respective monthly session:

4. Do I need to register?

- Yes, while this series is complementary, registration is required. You can register in a few easy steps at <https://virtual.jpjihealingcenter.org/course/freedom-series>

5. Can I invite another priest?

- Yes, please feel free to invite other priests to these monthly sessions. Any priest who has attended at least one JPIIHC event is welcome to attend.

6. What if I miss the first call?

- If you miss the first call (or any of the monthly calls), all sessions will be recorded and available in our online portal. After the session ends, recordings will be made available on the same page that the session was located. (See question #3 above for instructions on accessing this page).